

Invitation to the Third Annual
Undergraduate Linguistics Colloquium
at Harvard

on the Harvard University campus,
Cambridge, Massachusetts
April 23–24, 2005.

This colloquium has been initiated with the goal of developing an intercollegiate community of linguistics enthusiasts at the undergraduate level. In keeping with this broad aim, the conference is open to all interested students regardless of area of interest or level of training. Professor Morris Halle of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology will be featured as our keynote speaker, and undergraduates will present their own research in talks and discussions.

The registration fee for this two-day conference will be $12 for each preregistered participant (preregistration must be received by April 15) or $17 at the door. Preregistration is strongly encouraged. Overnight on-campus housing with Harvard students will be arranged on a space-available basis for those who so request. Continental breakfast on Saturday and Sunday will be provided.

Those interested in attending are asked to send the attached registration form, along with the registration fee and request for housing, if applicable, to the address below. Please make checks out to the Harvard College Linguistics Group.
