Metropolis of Boston invites All College, OCF (Orthodox Christian Fellowship) students to an exciting, and enlightening and spiritually edifying presentation on “Orthodox Monasticism” and Marriage and Celibacy in the Orthodox Faith.

Sunday, October 24, 2004 at Hellenic College/Holy Cross 5:00 pm Chapel, 6:00 pm Supper, 7:00 pm Video presentation and discussion in the Library Reading Room.

Vasilios Bassakyros is a graduate student at Holy Cross/Hellenic College pursuing a Master of Divinity Degree. In 1989, Vasilios was invited by Fr. Makarios to St. Catherine’s Monastery at the foot of Mount Sinai, Egypt. After 3 months, Vasilios was accepted into the community as a novice and remained there for almost 6 months. In 1993, during summer break from Queens College, Vasilios returned to St. Catherine’s and resumed his duties as a novice. Since then he has brought his unique experiences to many diverse groups around the U.S. about the jewel of the desert, St. Catherine’s.
