Small Claims Workshop

Do you have a legal question and don't know where to go for help?

- Disputes with a landlord or roommate?
- Substandard living conditions?
- Shoddy work by a contractor?
- Deception by a business?
- Vehicle purchases and repairs?
- Personal disputes?
- Credit and debt management?
- Identity theft?

You are invited to meet with the Massachusetts Small Claims Advisory Service on Saturday March 6, April 10, or May 1 from 1-4pm.

SCAS members will be present and ready to explain important small claims information, and are available to meet with you personally to discuss your case. If you have a case under $2000, we can help you navigate the small claims courts of Massachusetts free of charge!

WE SPEAK SPANISH, CHINESE, PORTUGUESE, KOREAN, FRENCH, AND MORE!

The Small Claims Advisory Service (SCAS) is a student-run volunteer group operating under the Phillips Brooks House Association of Harvard College [501(c)(3)]. Although SCAS student volunteers are trained in MA small claims law and procedure, we are not lawyers.

We can only provide legal information and not advice.
