The Drunken Sailor

D                                        F
What shall we do with a drunken sailor?
C                                        a
What shall we do with a drunken sailor?
D                                        G
What shall we do with a drunken sailor
a                   d
Early in the morning?

Way ho and up she rises! (repeat as above)

Throw him in the longboat till he's sober. (Chorus)
Trice him by the leg in a running bowline.
Shave his belly with a rusty razor.
Put him in the scuppers with a hose-pipe on him.

Put him in bed with the captain's daughter.
She looks like an orangutan (x3)
   Swinging through the rigging!
That's what we do with a drunken sailor.
